would be the case with elevator. It is further proposed that property be mortgaged in order that farmers may borrow on their stored grain.

Under the circumstances, it would seem that the proposition by which every wheat producer in the West to every an opportunity to market a certain percentage of the crop is eminently fair. As is pointed out, if deliveries are unregulated a few farmers may be able to monopolize the local elevator service; examples of this have arisen even during normal times of the past.

While the provision of suitable granaries for farm storage entails additional expense, to some extent this would be offset by payment of storage charges long by the Wheat Board to the farmer as is done in the case of elevator companies. In effect, too, a well-built granary that will pass the necessary inspection for storage is a distinct asset to a farm property.

Admittedly, it is impossible to see very far ahead at the present time to determine the fate of Canadian wheat, but one thing is sure. It is always wise planning in the days of plenty to prepare against the days of shortage. If not of actual famine, as in Egypt, prepared against a severe year drought. Barring disastrous hailstorms, Alberta appears likely to harvest its third consecutive crop, but here, too, the dread spectre of drought is not unknown.

DEMOCRACY OR DESPOTISM?

The War Savings Committee for Alberta has adopted a slogan: "Democracy or Despotism—Which?"

The seventy-third birthday of Democracy is with us, and we begin to wonder whether or not we can still call it a democracy. It is a fact that we are faced with the alternative of such a choice.

Democracy or despotism? Even yet we cannot say. It is a choice between two evils, but the words have no real meaning. Only to resort to words have been found with the question: "Which is to be our destiny?"

Democracy is a system of life which we are trying to build up. Men have not yet made life better, perfect, and democracy is a word which means freedom. Only to resort to words have been found with the question: "Which is to be our destiny?"

Copier rates have fallen during recent days, a welcome change in the market. The rates have fallen very low and dry with an occasional rain in the Delta district. Up to the 15th, over two inches of rain fell in one week, a drought over the hills on Wednesday evening accounting for one such is such an hour. Gardens are repudiating generally to the north and west. The rain is general and over vegetation is fast growing in maturity. An electrical storm in the morning, some miles west, occurred on Saturday evening last. Little rain fell in the village, but heavy rain was experienced north and south in the Delta. Two such storms—on at 8:30, the other at 5 a.m.—broke over the village early on Tuesday, when another half inch of rain fell. Peas of thousands accompanying the last of these were so violent as to shake in their foundations the stout built residences. Some hail is reported.
